ABOUT OUR COMPANY

KD Group was established in 2003 by the joint directors David Staunton and myself, Kieran Staunton. We are proud of our rapidly growing mechanical and electrical engineering company that has evolved through the years and we now operate from two offices in Co. Mayo and Co. Dublin.

Every project undertaken by KD Group comes with a number of assurances. It will be completed to the highest international quality standards; it will be fully compliant with all safety, health and environmental legislation. These assurances are backed up with International certification.

Our company is registered and certified by QAS International for OHSAS 18001 and our adherence to Health & Safety Legislation is paramount to our business, our employees, and our client, and we continually strive to improve and exceed standards. The core of our business is based on the quality of our work. KD Group is registered and certified by QAS International for ISO9001, and is committed to maintaining the highest quality management systems to ensure a consistently high quality product, service and delivery. We are devoted to conserving and protecting our environment, our employees, our clients and our community and to ensure our standards are maintained we are registered and certified by QAS International for ISO14001.

We at KD Group guarantee quality care and quality engineering and we hope that KD Group will be working with you sometime in the future.

Warm regards,

OUR BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY

QUALITY CARE, QUALITY ENGINEERING

Our Mission

Our mission at KD Group is to reach our maximum potential as a mechanical and electrical engineering company through hard, honest work, providing quality customer service to our clients and our promise to lifelong learning. We want to continue our success in the NISO Awards promoting our high health and safety standards. We are committed to maintaining our low level of accidents onsite with the help of our in-house Health and Safety Manager, Caroline Mullins.

Our Vision

To earn the recognition of one of the leading mechanical and electrical engineering companies in Ireland. KD Group has grown in the past number of years so we know the commitment and hard work that is involved in building a company from the bottom up. We would like to continue to; build strong relationships with our main contractors and consultants, provide excellent customer service to our clients, learn from our peers, promote a positive work environment for our employees and to increase our existing professional team.

Our Values

To KD Group our most important asset is our clients and our employees. We have built a skilled, loyal, professional team, who are foremost to the success of our company. We are committed to the continuous training of all our employees. Our training is focused on providing a superior service and satisfaction for all our clients. We are dedicated in building a solid client relationship that allows us to exceed client's expectations and make us a company that you want to work with.
